STEPHEN S. HONG PRIMARY EXAMINER Continuation of 5. does NOT place the application in condition for allowance because: Continuation of 5. does NOT place the application in condition for allowance because: since the arguments are not persuasive, as the rejection is based on what the references, considered as a while, taught and suggested. In response to applicant's arguments againstthe references individually, one cannot show nonobviousness by attacking references individually where the rejections are based on combinations of references.
